

Tenth Annual NAIA Youth Exhibition Games

Dear Coach:

The Buffalo Funds-NAIA Division I Men's Basketball National Championship will be held again this year in Kansas City's Historic Municipal Auditorium from March 14-20, 2012. As part of The NAIA's Champions of Character program, the tournament is inviting Kansas City area youth teams (5th, 6th, 7th & 8th grade) to play an exhibition game on the championship court. These quick-paced exhibition games will be played at halftime of games on Saturday, March 17th. There is no charge to take part in the exhibition games.

In addition to the thrill of playing during a national tournament, participating teams will receive:

- Free tickets for players and coaches for all four games of that tournament session.
- Free commemorative T-shirts.
- A NAIA National Basketball Tournament team photo will be sent via email at the end of the tournament.

If you and your team would like to take part in this valuable, fun and memory-building event please fill out the form below and return it. Please feel free to send this form to other coaches who may be interested. Thank you. The deadline to submit your youth team is February 17th, 2012. Consideration will be given to those forms returned in a timely manner.

Sincerely,
Youth Games Coordinators

In order to properly match skill levels between the competing teams please rank your team on a scale of 1-10 in comparison with ALL Kansas City teams of your grade level. For instance a "B" league champion may rank as a 5 or 6 in comparison with all teams. Please know that skill level will not be a determining factor for selection. It will only be used to match teams by ability. If more teams respond than spots are available, a lottery drawing will be used to select teams. Please rank 1-10 (10 being the highest) _____
